A native to Los Angeles, California, Eden Sher is currently stealing the spotlight as "Sue Heck," the socially awkward daughter with a heart of gold, on the sixth season of ABC's The Middle. It is her portrayal of Sue's enthusiasm and blind optimism that continues to delight audiences. For this role, Eden won the Critics' Choice Television Award for Best Supporting Actress in a Comedy in 2013, after three consecutive nominations. She has also been nominated for a Teen Choice Award for 'Scene Stealer' and named to People magazine's annual list of the "40 To Watch."

Eden will be hitting the silver screen this summer in "The Outskirts," co-starring opposite Victoria Justice. Off-screen, she lends her voice to the lead character of the Disney Channel's upcoming animated series, Star and the Forces of Evil, which will debut March 30, 2015.

Outside of acting, Eden uses her love of words and emotion to create www.the-emotionary.com, a website/tumblr/Twitter dedicated to the creation of words for complex feelings that have not yet been discovered. It is updated with definitions, quips and musings and the site invites visitors to submit their own creations.

She also enjoys hiking, yoga, reading, music and volunteering. Sher resides in Los Angeles.
